KIRK R. HAMM (10-yr Bio)

Sergeant Kirk Hamm started his career with the City of Richland Hills Police Department in October 1990 as a Police Officer. He attended the 55th School of Police Supervision and was selected as Officer of the Year in 1993. He left as a Sergeant in August 1994 to work for the Grapevine Police Department. He moved to Oregon in 1997 and worked as a Police Officer in Redmond, Oregon, until returning to Texas in 2003.

Sergeant Hamm returned to Richland Hills Police Department as a Police Officer on June 12, 2003, was assigned as Officer-in-Charge on November 18, 2003, and was promoted to Sergeant effective July 22, 2004. He received a Life Saving Award for his actions on February 29, 2004 when he saved the life of an inmate while in custody.

Sergeant Hamm grew up in Richland Hills, attended Glenview Elementary, Richland Junior High, and Richland High School. He joined the United States Air Force as a Security Police Officer in 1985 and was stationed in Frankfurt, Germany, for two years.

Sergeant Hamm holds a TCLEOSE instructor certification. He is also certified under the National Academy for Professional Driving and is the department's Tactical Police Driving instructor.

Sergeant Hamm received training as an instructor in both "Rapid Response to Active Shooters" and is a Physical Fitness Specialist through the prestigious Cooper Institute in Dallas.

We are truly honored to have an employee of such value.
