Memorandum

To: Honorable Mayor Bill Agan and members of the Richland Hills City Council
From: Cathy Bourg, City Secretary
Date: August 4, 2015
Subject: Recognition of the Richland Middle School Band

City Council Action Requested:

Recognition of the Richland Middle School Band

Background Information:

June 6, 2015, judges unanimously selected the Richland Middle School Honor Winds Band for the Region 5 Top Honor Band. This was the first time ever that Richland Middle had been chosen the Region Top Honor Band! In the second round of competition, June 26, 2015, judges unanimously selected the Richland Middle School Honor Winds Band for the Area B Top Honor Band! This placed Richland Middle School into the Texas state finals as one of the 15 BEST middle school honor bands in the entire state! There are approximately 2,144 middle school bands in the state of Texas. The final round of competition concluded on July 23, 2015 with Richland Middle School Honor Winds Band placing 9th overall in the Top Ten Honor Bands in the State of Texas!! What an incredible privilege and distinction to be recognized as the best student musicians and directors that Texas has to offer!
